Southeast European Integration Perspectives

Edited by Wolfgang Petritsch and Christophe Solioz

“Southeast European Integration Perspectives” (SEIP) publishes relevant works on the policy issues concerning Southeast Europe written by scholars, analysts, politicians, practitioners and activists, including both internationally recognised authors and emerging regional voices.

SEIP analyses and promotes ongoing processes of transition and transformation, exploring the linkages between an emergent regionalism in Southeast Europe and wider European integration.

SEIP combines cutting edge policy research, interdisciplinary approaches and innovative and provocative thinking of interest to a wide range of readers, in particular analysts, policy makers, diplomats, scholars and journalists.

Resisting the Evil Volume 7

[Post-]Yugoslav Anti-War Contention

Edited by Bojan Bilić and Vesna Janković

2012, approx. 250 pp., pb.,

approx. € 34.00

ISBN 978-3-8329-7208-0

To be published: approx. November 2012

www.nomos-shop.de/14341

The volume illuminates (post-)Yugoslav anti-war engagement as an important and up to now neglected aspect of the complex process of Yugoslavia's dissolution. With its distinctly transnational approach, it recovers the relevance of various forms of civic organizing in former Yugoslavia for the anti-war contention which unfolded before, during and after the wars of Yugoslav succession.

Towards Open Regionalism in South East Europe Volume 6

Edited by Paul Stubbs and Christophe Solioz

2012, 226 pp., pb., € 34.00

ISBN 978-3-8329-6597-6

www.nomos-shop.de/13610

The volume presents a series of reflections on the possibilities and problems of emergent forms of regional co-operation in South East Europe. It addresses the implications of the development of an "open regionalism", more achieved from within than ascribed by outside forces, and consisting of multi-actor, multi-level and multi-scalar processes producing a complex geometry of interlocking networks.

The Balkans: The Terror of Culture Volume 5

Essays in Political Anthropology

By Ivan Čolović

2011, 196 pp., pb., € 34.00

ISBN 978-3-8329-6303-3

www.nomos-shop.de/13276

The volume deconstructs culture as the catalyst for hatred and war in the Balkans. The author also pays particular attention to the post-war "patriotic" discourse and the use of culture – in Serbia and other Balkan countries – with the intention to determine how and through which rhetorical strategies this sort of discourse manages to preserve its ability to trigger conflicts.

Forgotten Future: The Politics of Poetry in Bosnia and Herzegovina Volume 4

By Damir Arsenijević

2010, 214 pp., pb., € 39.00, ISBN 978-3-8329-5700-1

www.nomos-shop.de/12611

»Arsenijević provides a competent in-depth analysis of the selected poems... the book proves to be an intellectually engaging, methodologically solid and empirically rich work.«

Dareg A. Zabarrah, Südosteuropa 2/11

Conflict and Memory: Bridging Past and Future in (South East) Europe Volume 3

Edited by Wolfgang Petritsch and Vedran Džihic

2010, 326 pp., pb., € 69.00, ISBN 978-3-8329-4879-5

www.nomos-shop.de/11710

The essays highlight memory discourses in different European countries with a focus on SEE. These country-specific and comparative studies offer convincing analyses and conclusions as to why the process of dealing with the past has to be viewed in the complex interplay between the European history and the current context of the European Union integration processes.

Ethnopolitik in Bosnien-Herzegowina: Staat und Gesellschaft in der Krise Volume 2

By Vedran Džihic

2010, 440 pp., pb., € 79.00

ISBN 978-3-8329-4874-0

www.nomos-shop.de/11704

For the first time in the German speaking area this book presents a comprehensive and up-to-date analysis of all major developments and trends in Bosnia-Herzegovina from Dayton till 2009. It discusses systematically the "Dayton hidden weaknesses" looks for the reasons for the unbroken rule of ethnopolitics, presents a convincing explanation for the weak democratization performance of the international community in Bosnia and dissects the factors hindering the Europeanization process.

Serbia Matters: Domestic Reforms and European Integration Volume 1

Edited by Wolfgang Petritsch, Goran Svilanović and Christophe Solioz

2009, 228 pp., pb., € 29.00, ISBN 978-3-8329-4584-8

www.nomos-shop.de/11392

»It is an important contribution in literature for being the first book that searches to identify problems clearly and persuade both Serbian political elite and those members of EU that impede progress of Serbia in its attempt to become part of European family...a great contribution in this area, as it is the first of its kind.« Jovana Jezdimirovic Ranito, Balkan Academic News 5/10
